PEORIA TRIBAL EDUCATION PROGRAM REGULATIONS

PURPOSE

The purpose of this set of guidelines is to provide uniform procedures for the administration of the Peoria Tribal Education Program. This program is funded totally by the Peoria Tribe, from monies set aside for this purpose and from the award of judgment funds from Dockets 313, 314-A and 314-B.

ELIGIBILITY

Persons eligible to receive benefits from the Peoria Tribal Education Program shall be all enrolled members of the Peoria Tribe of Indians of Oklahoma, as evidenced by their Tribal Membership Roll. Other eligibility requirements will be evidenced in the applicable program section.

BENEFITS/PAYMENTS

Scholarship Objective: To provide higher education and/or vocational training scholarships to members of the Peoria Tribe of Indians of Oklahoma who are best able to demonstrate probability of success.

BENEFITS PROVIDED

The Peoria Tribe shall award scholarships each year to assist tribal members in meeting their higher education goals. A maximum of $3,500 per scholarship per semester for Full-time students and a maximum of $1,750 per scholarship per semester for Part-time students will be paid directly to the student. Students must be enrolled in an accredited college or vocational training institution. A maximum of eight semesters will be funded. Grants are for one semester period.

APPLICATION

An application for benefits from the Peoria Tribal Education Program shall be sent to the Peoria Tribal Office. Applications must be accompanied by documentation required for the program section for which application is being made. Failure to provide required documentation may result in delay or denial of the application. Applications submitted after the deadline shall not be considered for that funding cycle.

Applications will be accepted by the Peoria Education Committee until July 31 for the Fall term and until December 31 for the spring term. Applications must be mailed to the Peoria Tribal Office. A postmark reflecting the deadline date is acceptable. Incomplete applications will not receive consideration. Applications must include all supporting documentation.

Applications may be obtained through written request from the Peoria Tribal Office or downloaded from the Peoria Tribe's website, www.peoriatribe.com and should be returned, in the special envelope provided, to the Peoria Education Committee. The address is:

PEORIA EDUCATION COMMITTEE
PEORIA TRIBAL OFFICE
P.O. BOX 1527
MIAMI, OK 74355

APPLICATION SELECTION CRITERIA

Applicant must carry at least 12 hours or more for full-time and at least 6 hours for part-time to be eligible for funding unless attending last semester before graduation. Due to limited funding, applications must be selected on a competitive basis. Application will be rated on academics and probability of the completion of the academic program.
